

2016 WORKSHOPS FOR LAY COUNSELING TRAINING

Do you like helping people? Do you often find yourself in situations with people in emotional, personal or relational crisis or transitions?

Maybe you are a gifted encourager or caring helper. Because of your desire to counsel and guide individuals, you may be seeking a deeper understanding of people and the skills to be a more effective people helper.

Come and join us for these highly informative and practical workshops, from a source you can trust.

DEBT CANCELING: RESOLVING THE PAIN OF THE PAST

Now celebrating 20 years of satisfied trainees!

Sat, Jan 16, 23 – both sessions required (9:00 am – 12:00 pm)

INTRODUCTION TO SUICIDOLOGY: PREVENTION, INTERVENTION AND POSTVENTION

Sat, Jan 30 (9:00 am – 12:00 pm)

"WHERE'S PAPA?" HELPING VICTIMS OF FATHER ABANDONMENT

Sat, Feb 6 (9:00 am – 12:00 pm)

THE SCIENCE OF GRATITUDE

Sat, Feb 13 (9:00 am – 12:00 pm)

DEBT CANCELING: RESOLVING THE PAIN OF THE PAST

Sat, Feb 20, 27 – both sessions required (9:00 am – 12:00 pm)

INTRODUCTION TO CRISIS MANAGEMENT

Sat, Mar 5 (9:00 am – 12:00 pm)

INTRODUCTION TO SUICIDOLOGY: PREVENTION, INTERVENTION AND POSTVENTION

Sat, Mar 12 (9:00 am – 12:00 pm)

Fees are paid by The City Mission, but advance registration is required.

Please contact Neb Burke, Executive Assistant to the CEO at nburke@thecitymission.org or 216-431-3510, ext. 206.