

FREEDOMSONG

Freedom Song

Freedom Song is a transformative musical that will shatter the myth of Jews being immune to addiction. By interweaving a Passover Seder with personal stories of addiction, Freedom Song poses one stark question—“what are you a slave to?” The cast of Freedom Song is not a cast of actors; they are actual addicts in recovery that have broken off the shackles of drugs, alcohol, gambling, and other destructive behaviors. By performing in Freedom Song, our interchanging cast members have an opportunity to answer questions from the audience and to share their experiences on how best to recover from a lifestyle of addiction. Using song and dance, tears and laughter, and an intense post show discussion with our cast, Freedom Song will open your eyes to the real life struggle against the ‘bondage of self’ that we fight every day.

Beit T’Shuvah

Beit T’Shuvah is a haven for spiritual growth and healing. Housing both a residential treatment center and a supportive, spiritual community, Beit T’Shuvah approaches addiction and other destructive behaviors with a groundbreaking model focusing on the integration of the whole self—the mind, body, and spirit. This model integrates Jewish spirituality, psychotherapy, addiction counseling, The 12 steps, and creative arts. We help our clients practice the art of living well through diverse programming designed to teach individuals how to live in concert with their own unique holiness. We never turn anyone away due to an inability to pay for treatment, and we work with all clients on a sliding scale that they can afford. More than just a treatment center, Beit T’Shuvah is a flourishing group of people devoted to living healthy, purposeful lives.
