IMPORTANT INFORMATION!

The Alcohol, Drug Addiction & Mental Health Services (ADAMHS) Board of Cuyahoga County's Training Institute is an approved provider through the Ohio Chemical Dependency Professionals Board and the Ohio Counselor, Social Worker, Marriage and Family Therapist Board offering Recognized Clock Hours (RCH) to Chemical Dependency Professionals as well as Continuing Professional Education hours (CPE) to Counselors and Social Workers.

Fees for the ADAMHS Board Training Institute workshops are $25 per half-day (2-4 hour) session and $45 for a full-day (5+ hour) session. Occasionally, workshops will be offered free on an as-needed basis per topic. Workshop fees are non-refundable.

The ADAMHS Board is using Eventbrite to process ALL registrations. Payment can be made by credit card and/or checks made payable to the ADAMHS Board of Cuyahoga County. Invoices may be sent to organizations. All workshop participants must be registered and confirmed in advance through Eventbrite. An order confirmation and entrance ticket to the workshop will be e-mailed through Eventbrite immediately after the registration process is complete. Walk-ups and cash payments will not be accepted.

To register for a workshop, visit the Web site listed at the end of each workshop description. Please note that each session has its own unique Web address. If you want to attend more than one session, you must register for each session individually through its unique Web site.

Please arrive on time for all scheduled workshops. If you arrive late to a workshop you will not receive a certificate. Partial credit will not be given. In order to receive a certificate of completion, you must be present for the entire workshop.

General Information:

All workshops are held in the Training Institute, located in the ADAMHS Board offices on the 6th Floor of the United Bank Building, 2012 West 25th Street. Free parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis. All visitors must check-in at the blue Parking Attendant Booth located in the lot directly behind the building on the east side of West 26th Street. Visitors are to inform the attendant that they are visiting the ADAMHS Board and will be directed to available parking spaces or may receive complimentary valet parking. Please bring the ticket provided to you from the attendant to the ADAMHS Board receptionist for validation. Free and metered parking is also available on the street.

Participants must meet the minimum education level and credential requirements indicated:

OPEN LEVEL	Open to anyone seeking the most basic understanding/awareness of the topic presented.
ENTRY LEVEL	Registrants must be Certified Chemical Dependency Assistants, Registered Applicants for Prevention, Social Worker Assistant or STNA.

The Science of Supervision

Stacy Simera, MSSA, LISW-S, SAP

August 1, 2017

8:30 A.M. – 11:45 A.M.

Advanced

3.00 RCH's Provider #50-17837

3.00 CEU Provider # RCS110677

FEE: $25

When we hear the term 'evidence-based practice' we often think of direct clinical interventions, yet any service we conduct as social service professionals should be backed by science - including supervision. In this workshop we will explore the research on supervision and identify ways to apply the evidence to all types of social service supervision – including methods of supervision, components of supervision, and impacts of supervision on the client and agency. This workshop was created at the request of Ohio NASW for its 'Science of Social Work' conference, and was highly regarded for applying science to the art of supervision.

Presenter Information

Dr. Jamie Marich, Ph.D, LPCC-S, LICDC-CS friends and colleagues describe her as a renaissance woman. A dancer, musician, performer, writer, recovery ambassador, and clinical counselor, Marich unites these elements of her experience to achieve an ultimate mission: bringing the art and joy of healing to others. Marich travels internationally speaking on topics related to EMDR, trauma, addiction, and mindfulness while maintaining a private practice (Mindful Ohio) in her home base of Warren, OH. She is the developer of the Dancing Mindfulness practice (www.dancingmindfulness.com) and regularly trains facilitators to take this unique practice into both clinical and community settings. Jamie Marich is the author of EMDR Made Simple: 4 Approaches for Using EMDR with Every Client (2011), Trauma and the Twelve Steps: A Complete Guide for Recovery Enhancement (2012), and Trauma Made Simple: Competencies in Assessment, Treatment, and Working with Survivors. Her new book, Dancing Mindfulness: A Creative Path to Living in the Moment is scheduled for release in 2015 with Skylight Paths Press. Marich is also a certified rational living hypnotherapist and completed the Street Yoga trauma-informed yoga teacher training program.

Dr. Paul Martin, DO, completed a residency in psychiatry at Case/Metrohealth and a fellowship in Forensic Medicine, Syracuse University. In addition to several years as a staff psychiatrist working in jails, crisis centers and prisons, he has served as consultant to State of Wisconsin public defenders regarding competency issues. As a consultant he has presented throughout the states of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio to social services, law enforcement, probation, school personnel, businesses and universities on topics of mental health issues, stress and violence in the workplace, and adolescent violence.

Stacy Simera, MSSA, LISW-S, SAP ,provides counseling at a private practice in Kent, facilitates psycho-educational programming at a multiple sclerosis clinic, and teaches at the college level. She also serves on the executive staff of the national non-profit Start School Later, serves as chair of the sleep committee for the Ohio Adolescent Health Partnership, and serves on the Alumni Board of the Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences at Case Western Reserve University. She was named 2014 Ohio Social Worker of the Year by the Ohio chapter of the National Association of Social Workers, and was honored by the Ohio Senate for her public service.

John Ward, LCDC III, CTS , holds a master's degree in counseling and is a licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor III and a Certified Trauma Specialist. He has been involved in child-welfare/human services in many aspects: as a foster child, adopted child, foster parent, caseworker, supervisor and a teacher/trainer. He specializes in RAD, ADD and trauma.
