

Addiction Recovery Advocacy Meeting

Monday, January 23, 2017

5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Tri-C Jerry Sue Thornton Center
2500 East 22 Street., Cleveland 44115

The ADAMHS Board of Cuyahoga County invites you to attend a meeting to help reduce the number of lives lost to opiate, heroin and fentanyl addiction.

Family members who have lost a loved one to addiction, individuals with a loved one struggling with addiction and individuals in recovery, advocacy groups and professionals want to work together to make sure that this tragedy does not happen to another family.

Our goal is to unite the powerful voices of individuals and advocacy groups to create change through action.

We will plan to meet often to put our plan into action.

Join us to discuss our next steps in implementing our change.

To RSVP, visit www.adamhsc.org or call 216-241-3400 ext. 812.

Who should attend?

- Family members who have lost a loved one to addiction
- Individuals living with a loved one who is struggling with addiction
- Addiction advocacy groups based here in our community
- Advocates willing to share ideas for solutions to our opiate, heroin and fentanyl tsunami
