Before they head off to school.
It's never too early to have a conversation about alcohol and other drugs.

The sooner you talk about the dangers of underage drinking and substance use, the greater chance you have of influencing your child's decisions about using alcohol and other drugs. For tips on how and when to begin the conversation, visit adamhsc.org/talk.

Before they make plans with friends.
Talk with your children about alcohol and other drugs.

Young people don't always have all the facts when it comes to alcohol and other drugs. Talk with your children about the risks of underage drinking and substance use, and be clear and consistent about your expectations. For tips on how and when to begin the conversation, visit adamhsc.org/talk.
